

Not Just Any Ordinary Chef

When I grow up, I want to be a chef.

And not just any ordinary chef.

I want to be the good seasoning on mama's top shelf.

Every night, I help my mom cook and listen to her as she reads her recipe book.

My favorite thing to cook is the fried pork chops. Yum!

I can imagine the pork chops as they drop...

Into my mama's big pan.

Helping my mom every night makes me want to be a chef.

And not just any ordinary chef.

I want to be the good seasoning on mama's top shelf.
