

The Joy Of Work

Life is such a grand blessing
So why are you always stressing?
Jobs are meant to be an inspiration
Not at all a dictation!

Find a job that is worth doing
Not one that is best for viewing.
I know it is hard to leave the ones you love
But they are thanking you and the man above.

So when you are doubting your capability
Remember it has nothing to do with the difficulty.
And when your job starts stressing you out,
Please don't go home and pout.

Just think about all the people you are helping,
Just by getting up in the morning.
So be thankful for all you have,
And don't be ashamed of your chosen path.
