

How I Honestly Feel

Honestly, my goal is to build a life

Honestly, I want a career where I'm not constantly waiting for the weekend

Honestly, I don't want to live a life where I hate five days of the week because I hate my job and my life

Honestly, I don't want the only relief in my life to be Saturday and Sunday

Honestly, I want to enjoy my life and not wish away every week

Honestly, I want each day to matter to me in some way

Honestly, I want to like every day of my life, not just the weekend

Honestly, I want a job that matters to me
