

2027 NCDA Conference Call for Proposals

Advancing Opportunity: Career Development as a Catalyst for Social & Economic Justice

June 29 – July 1, 2027

June 28 – Professional Development Institutes
Anaheim, California

LINK TO ONLINE SUBMISSION FORM

TYPES OF PROGRAMS

- Presentation: 60-minute traditional format. An LCD projector and sound will be available. Appropriate for a more formal, expert topic presentation with multiple presenters.
- Roundtable: Two consecutive 25-minute presentations at a roundtable that accommodates up to 10 people; LCD projector and sound will be available. Roundtables provide a relaxed and interactive forum for presenters to share their work and ideas related to research, programs, and practical applications. Appropriate if your topic of expertise is better suited for informal conversations. Roundtable presentations may not have more than 2 presenters.
- Professional Development Institute: 4-hour in-depth workshop to be held pre-conference. Appropriate for focusing in-depth on a topic and can include opportunities to practice skills or engage in discussions, while earning additional continuing education hours.

CONFERENCE AUDIENCE

The National Career Development Association's Global Conference includes career counselors, educators, and consultants. They work in colleges, private practice, schools, business and industry, workforce, corrections and one-stop centers, agencies, government and other workplace settings. They call themselves counselor educators, career center staff, coaches, career services providers, consultants, directors, transition specialists, managers, labor market and employment specialists, and school counselors and administrators.

CONFERENCE THEME – Advancing Opportunity: Career Development as a Catalyst for Social & Economic Justice

This theme positions career development as a driving force for fairness, mobility, and systemic change. It emphasizes the profession's responsibility to expand access, dismantle barriers, and champion inclusive pathways to meaningful work and sustainable futures.

Aligned with the mission of NCDCA, the conference centers on advocacy, innovation, and collective impact across practice, policy, and research.

Core Theme Pillars

1. Equity & Access

- Expanding pathways to education, training, and quality employment
- Addressing structural and systemic barriers

2. Economic Justice & Mobility

- Career development as a lever for financial well-being
- Workforce strategies that promote fair wages and stability

3. Advocacy & Systems Change

- Influencing policy and institutional practices
- Building cross-sector partnerships for broader impact

4. Inclusive Practice & Community Voice

- Centering marginalized perspectives
- Culturally responsive and community-engaged approaches

5. Innovation for the Future of Work

- Preparing practitioners and clients for evolving labor markets
- Technology, resilience, and new career pathways

PRESENTATION FOCUS AREA

NCDCA has seven (7) constituency groups. A large percentage of proposals are deemed to be applicable to a "general audience." As such, having a proposal chosen from "general audience" group is much more competitive than one that targets a specific constituency group. This should be considered when marking the group that best represents your target audience.

1. K-12 Career Counselors and Specialists
2. Counselor Educators and Researchers
3. Higher Education Career Center Counselors and Specialists
4. Career Counselors and Specialists in Business & Industry
5. Career Counselors and Specialists in Government and Public Agencies
6. Career Counselors and Specialists in Private Practice and Consulting
7. Career Counselors and Specialists Working with Special Populations such as Military/Veterans, Corrections, Special Needs, etc.

8. General Audience (applicable to all attendees)

SUBMISSION INFORMATION

Be clear and concise. Proposals are limited in length. Additional information will not be accepted or considered in the review process.

Submission Instructions: Proposals must be submitted via the online platform.

The submission form will be open through Thursday, October 15, 2026. Proposals NOT submitted via the online platform WILL NOT be accepted for review.

Correspondence regarding program proposal acceptance and confirmation will be made via email.

You will receive a confirmation email once you submit your proposal. If you do not receive a confirmation email, please contact Mary Ann Powell at mpowell@ncda.org or phone (918) 663-7060.

Deadline for Submission: Thursday, October 15, 2026, 11:59 pm Eastern Time. Submissions will not be accepted after this date unless otherwise stated on the NCDA website.

NBCC CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

NCDA is an NBCC Approved Continuing Education Provider (ACEP). For proposals to be eligible for NBCC Continuing Education (CE), the chair or lead presenter must meet specific presenter qualifications and present on topics appropriate for his/her level of experience/training. The CHAIR or LEAD PRESENTER must indicate an appropriate category for the session to be NBCC CE approved.

Category I presenters are qualified to present on topics including, but not limited to:

- Theories, principles, and techniques of counseling as applied to work and career
- Career counseling processes and resources, including, but not limited to, those applicable to specific communities and populations
- Career/life planning and decision-making models
- Life-work role transitions, including, but not limited to, outplacement and retirement counseling

Category II and III presenters may be accepted for topics including:

- Career development program planning, resources, and program evaluation
- Assessment of workplace environment for purposes of job placement
- Trends in job search
- Career avocational, educational, occupational, and labor market information, and resources and career information systems

You will be asked to select a category that matches your expertise:

- Category I: Holds a graduate degree in mental health field from an institutionally accredited educational institution and is qualified by appropriate education, experience, and/or training to present/author the subject matter, or author the publication concerning the subject matter.

- Category II: Holds a graduate degree from an institutionally accredited educational institution directly related to the subject matter presented and be qualified by appropriate education, experience, and/or training to present/author the subject matter, or author the publication concerning the subject matter.
- Category III: Be qualified by appropriate education, experience, and/or training to present/author the subject matter, or author the publication concerning the subject matter.

PROGRAM SELECTION/EVALUATION PROCESS

Selection: The NCDA Conference Program Committee will review all proposals. Final decisions will be based on quality, intended audience, and relation to the conference theme. The presentation chair will be notified via email of acceptance or rejection of the proposal no later than Tuesday, December 15, 2026. The presentation chair is responsible for communicating with others on the program.

If you do not receive an email notification of your acceptance or decline from NCDA by December 15, please contact Mary Ann Powell at mpowell@ncda.org or phone (918) 663-7060.

Evaluation: Each program proposal will be evaluated on the degree to which they meet the following criteria:

1. Program Goals and Objectives
2. Program Description
3. Relevance to the Conference Theme
4. Content is Grounded in Evidence, Theory, Research, or Practical Experience
5. Clear Connections are Made to Practical Applications in Career Development
